b. Absence from school

A Saint attends school regularly unless he is sick. He takes responsibility to obtain a medical certificate from a registered clinic to account for his absence. Parent's letter is discouraged unless it is due to extenuating circumstances (e.g. bereavement, serious sickness in the family, etc.).

He ensures that he catches up on his work by attending all the make-up lessons conducted and studying the materials that have been given to him. He completes any work that has been assigned to him during his absence.

c. During Curriculum Time

A Saint demonstrates a spirit of excellence by ensuring that he is ready for every lesson.

Materials	I am always ready. I will place all learning materials on my desk before the start of every lesson and hold a pen in my hand.
Attendance	On time, every time. I will be punctual for all my lessons and remain in my class at all times.
Cleanliness	I will make this happen by keeping my classroom clean at all times because a clean classroom makes a good learning environment.
Homework	Done on time, every time. I will complete and submit my homework punctually.
Objectives	I will keep the end in mind. I will take note of the lesson objectives and aim to meet them during the lesson.

A Saint exercises Self-Discipline and demonstrates the value of Wonder in his learning by staying attentive during lessons and participates actively and constructively in classroom activities and assignments. He makes a positive impact on the learning of his classmates.

<sup>5</sup>All latecomers are required to serve up to 2 hours of after-school detention, on the day of late-coming itself. Detention could be rescheduled to another day if there is valid reason to do so.

5. Caring for School Property

A Saint demonstrates a heart of Thanksgiving to the school and staff for the opportunity to grow and develop into a fine man of good character.

- a. A Saint takes responsibility for the cleanliness of the school environment. He takes the initiative to pick up litter to keep the school compound clean and takes good care of school property such as desks, chairs, restrooms, IT equipment etc.
- b. A Saint exercises Integrity by admitting to his mistakes and makes good any damage caused by him.

6. The Discipline Rule Book

The discipline rule book spells out the consequences for Saints who infringe on the Saints Code of Conduct. The course of actions taken varies depending on the severity of the offences committed by the child and in light of any mitigating factors or special consideration for the child.

The discipline rule book is appended on pages 5 – 17.

7. The Restorative Approach and The Rule Book

The school's primary approach to discipline is Restorative Practice which aims at helping the child to take ownership of his actions, considers the implications of his actions and taking constructive steps to correct his behaviour through a process of reflection and restoration with the guidance of the teachers.

It is also important to note that any Saint who does a wrongdoing learns from the past mistakes and makes up for the harm or damage caused. Repeating the same mistake is unacceptable and is deemed as an act of defiance, which will result in higher level consequences.

The School reserves the discretion to amend the rules and recommend an appropriate course of action as deemed necessary.
